

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ASSIST IN SECURING DISPOSAL OF SEWAGE OF THE BEET SUGAR FACTORY

MC'FADDEN AND IRVINE STATE THEIR POSITIONS IN REGARD TO MANAGEMENT

Several Stockholders Plead For Harmony—Three Avenues For Outlet—Case, Hinze Co. Proposal

The stockholders of the Southern California Sugar Co. yesterday afternoon heard a report from the committee of the directors in regard to the factory's dilemma in the disposal of its sewage. Three avenues of disposal were reported as feasible. A committee of four was appointed to assist the factory committee, which is composed of F. P. Nickey, R. J. Blee and F. H. Case, in determining what is best to be done, and in carrying out whatever plan can be carried out.

There were represented in person 4,114 shares and 645 by proxy.

The following offer from the Case, Hinze Co. was received and filed:

"The Case, Hinze Co., as soon as it gets control of its stock, agrees to place in escrow in one of the banks in Santa Ana, a sufficient amount of said stock to protect the sugar company in any and all expenditures necessary to bring the plant to a capacity of 600 tons a day, if it should be demonstrated in another run that the said plant is not of full capacity of 600 tons per day. This offer is based on the express condition that the present management shall have control of the operation of the plant, and that the sugar company furnish an adequate supply of water, suitable for sugar factory purposes, and a drainage outlet adequate to take all factory refuse water without obstruction to the operation of the plant, and a suitable place for the deposit of the pulp and lime, the demonstration to be made to the satisfaction of the board of directors."

James McFadden stated that this proposition could not be taken up because the stock of the Case, Hinze Co. is tied up by attachment in law suits.

F. P. Nickey for the committee on drainage stated that there were three plans by which the sewage outlet in pipelines could be obtained, provided rights-of-way could be secured.

The Three Suggestions
One of these plans was to follow the Pacific Electric and secure exit in the ocean between Newport Beach and Huntington Beach.

Another plan was to take the water west on the Delhi road to land near the Santa Ana river. This land should be filled, and the objectionable materials in the sewage be removed, the water to drain off into the channel, provided a right to allow it to go there could be obtained.

A third way was to go south on Main street, and go to the bay, providing sidelines for the disposal of sewage on Irvine and McFadden properties.

That rights-of-way had not been obtained was brought out. That the factory cannot run without an outlet was pointed out.

J. T. Wilson moved that D. H. Thomas, S. H. Finley, C. A. Riggs and J. A. Turner be appointed a committee to assist in the work of securing an outlet.

McFadden and Irvine
James McFadden, during the course of the meeting, read a statement as to his position in regard to granting concessions for the disposal of sewage, which was summed up in the last paragraph as follows:

"Judging from the past and present vindictive and malicious attitude of the parties in control of this corporation toward me, and from their indifference in the matter of foul odors, I believe that if I should enter into any such agreement with them as at first contemplated by Mr. Irvine and myself, or if I in any way should place myself at the mercy of this corporation, my rights and interests would be jeopardized and would receive no consideration whatever, and I would thus be compelled to resort to the courts for protection. Knowing these conditions, I do not propose to put myself in a position to suffer loss or be caused further trouble. I regret that these conditions exist, but know of no remedy within my power."

James Irvine also stated his position, saying that he has no confidence in the Case management and as long as it remains in control it will be useless to come to him.

The next effort to secure an outlet will likely be to get a right-of-way from the Pacific Electric with the expectation of taking the sewage to the ocean.

During the course of the meeting frequent mention was made of the Case, Hinze Co. statement mailed recently to stockholders, a summary of which appeared in the Register yesterday.

Reporters were admitted to the meeting at the time of the appointment of the assisting committee was under consideration. The committee was appointed.

D. H. Thomas—"I was largely responsible for having this meeting called. It looks to me that if we can get rid of the waste water the factory can't run, and if it can't what are we going to do with the beet? I understand you directors can't do anything. It looks like a family quarrel. While you are tied up four to five, what are we poor devils out in the woods going to do?"

J. A. Turner—"It is to the good of the community for everyone to lay down personalities. Let's all help."

The Water Question
James Irvine—"In this printed statement issued by the Case, Hinze Co. it is said that the factory never had water enough, that the reason the plant did not come to capacity was lack of water. Mr. Catey had something to do with those wells. Let us hear from him."

Catey (a well borer)—"At times water was running in the reservoir. I have not the least doubt but what they could have had enough if they had gone right at it. At no time was there machinery here to pump the wells properly. The three wells would have given 150 to 200 inches if they went at it right. The factory has not sufficient settling basins for any industrial factory, to take out sand. Last year the sand went through the reservoir and into the factory."

Irvine—"Could you have furnished enough water?"

Catey—"If I had been allowed to go ahead, I could have. Once my foreman told me Hinze shut the water off his engine. It was shut off several times, and we were interfered with."

A. H. Stutsman—"Was this water matter up to the board or the contractor?"

James McFadden—"The matter was strictly up to the corporation. I pleaded to get Catey here. We had four wells down 500 feet. I had no idea but what these wells would be pumped out. In the very nature of things there would be sand in the bottom. I

Our Congress- man Is Slated for the Cabinet

The Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Call gives voice to the rumor that Representative S. C. Smith of this California district may be offered a cabinet position. He is likely to succeed Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock. The Call correspondent says:

"It is said that Smith, who has shown great efficiency on the House committee on postoffices and post-roads, will first be appointed an assistant postmaster general to succeed Charles P. Grandfield, recently appointed postmaster at Washington."

"He will thus be enabled to learn the ropes and will be made postmaster general on the resignation of Hitchcock, who has been contemplating resigning for some time."

Commenting on this report, the Santa Barbara Press says:

"It will be gratifying to Smith's friends to know that his ability has found such recognition at the capital; but at the same time they will not be easily reconciled to the loss of the one congressman from the Golden State who has given promise of becoming a national figure."

"After all, it is only a rumor; but these rumors from the capital have the way of becoming realities, quite frequently. This for the reason that the news may be given in confidence; and the correspondent stifles his conscience by disguising the fact as a mere whiff of gossip, thereby, in his own mind, 'saving his face' with his informant, and saving himself with the possibility of a 'beat.'"

"Even if mere rumor, it must be accepted that Smith stands well at Washington, or he would not be subject to so much journalistic conjecture in connection with a cabinet position."

FIRST CASE
RABIES HERE

Dog, Killed at Talbert Monday,
Had Hydrophobia, Says
Dr. Durfee

What is believed to be the first authenticated case of rabies in this county, is the case of a dog killed last Monday on Ed. Farnsworth's ranch at Talbert. The dog was killed by one of the Farnsworth boys after he had bitten seven dogs. The brain was sent to Los Angeles by Dr. C. D. Ball, health officer, and Dr. C. E. Price, veterinary surgeon, and was examined by Dr. Durfee, bacteriologist, for Health Officer Powers of Los Angeles. Dr. Durfee reported the case to be rabies.

The dog was a stray. As yet no one knows where he came from. He was a little black and tan terrier. He bit seven dogs in the neighborhood of the Farnsworth ranch. Probably all seven have since been killed.

BOY NOT HELD FOR KILLING STEPFATHER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—Six men sitting as jurors yesterday at a coroner's inquest on the body of Sanford E. Elliott, Jr., shot dead Tuesday at Sunnyside, declared that 18-year-old Dean Bingham, a former Polytechnic high school pupil, and a stepson of the dead man, was amply justified in killing him. The boy shot his stepfather in defending the lives of his mother and 12-year-old sister, Edith Bingham. Elliott was threatening them with a butcher knife when the boy came to their rescue with his revolver.

Ernest Elliott, brother of the stepfather, was a witness for the boy.

SAN JACINTO, March 18.—Manuel Arnaiz, a cattleman and rancher living near Idlewild and his son Eugene are under arrest today charged with complicity in the freight robberies that have occupied the attention of the county railroad officers for many months. They were arrested by four officers from San Bernardino, headed by local officers.

A cache was found in the San Jacinto mountains near the old lair of Joaquin Murietta, famous in the seventies. Fred McKee, recently arrested near San Bernardino, is supposed to have tipped the officers. Arnaiz denied his guilt, saying that he had traded three horses for the goods found, which consisted of liquors and other merchandise.

Fear That Compromise Will

CHICAGO, March 18.—Conferences of representatives of the Brotherhood of Firemen with Interstate Commission Chairman Knapp and Labor Commissioner O'Neill, held today, gave no indications as to how long the session would last, but it is generally believed they will continue for two weeks, after which the government agents will recommend a program.

PERCENT OF WAGE INCREASE
PRESENTS BIG OBSTACLE

CHICAGO, March 18.—An apparently unsurmountable obstacle to the settlement of the threatened firemen's strike arose today when it was reported that the railway managers had united upon the principle that they will not grant more than a two and one-half per cent raise in wages. The firemen demand twelve and one-half per cent.

No announcement of the progress of deliberations were made but information leaked out that government representatives are unable to see any way of circumventing the difficulty threatened by the decision of the managers. It is rumored that the attempts of Knapp and O'Neill for peace are a foredoomed failure.

BATTLE ROYAL IN HOUSE OVER RULES--CANNON IS STORM CENTER OF FIGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—Mrs. Taft, "Trust Buster" Kellogg and hundreds of prominent personalities thronged the galleries of the House of Representatives this afternoon anticipating the biggest fight of years on the great controversy over the rules of the house that began last night. The entrance of almost every representative was applauded by the galleries.

COMPROMISE REJECTED BY INSURGENTS AND ALLIES

The allied Republican insurgents and Democrats this afternoon turned down three compromise propositions, submitted to them by the regulars. The first proposition was that the rules committee be confined to ten members, the speaker not disqualified; the second, that the committee include fifteen with the speaker eligible; third, the regulars offered to accept the Norris resolution if the speaker be declared eligible in it.

RECESS WAS TAKEN FOR PURPOSE C. COMPROMISE

The insurgents also submitted a compromise suggesting a rules committee of fifteen members, the speaker to retire as a member. If he would do this they agreed not to embody his retirement in a bill. When submitted to Speaker Cannon he said:

"That's not a compromise. I won't be a goat."

WASHINGTON, March 18.—After twenty-four hours debate, recrimination and parliamentary delay, the house today voted by 161 to 151 to take a recess until 4 o'clock this afternoon. The motion for delay was made by Martin of South Dakota in order to give the regulars time to frame a compromise on the Norris regulation. Speaker Cannon voted for the motion. Several insurgents supported it, showing that they favored compromise rather than an open split with Cannon. A tentative committee of the regulars and insurgents and Democrats, was closed for the discussion of possible terms of compromise. Cannon plainly showed the effects of a long period of sleeplessness.

BATTLE WAXED FIERCELY ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT

Streaks of dawn filtering through the capitol windows this morning lighted the weary eyes of stubbornly fighting legislators, who for eighteen hours had been locked in a death struggle caused by an attempt to break the House organization and enact new rules.

Following the desertion of the chamber by the Republican organization men to stage off defeat until today brought absent members and relief, two hundred warrants were issued to bring absentees to the House, and Sergeant-at-Arms Cannon was ordered to serve them. At 4 o'clock this morning Hollingsworth (Republican, Ohio) appeared in the House and demanded to know who was responsible for the warrant for his arrest, and declared he would start a civil suit. Ollie James, the gaunt Kentucky Democrat, leaped to his feet and advised Hollingsworth to bring suit against the entire Republican party.

During the early morning, Dalzell (Republican, Pennsylvania) assumed the chair. At 6 o'clock Speaker Cannon returned. Lines in his aged face showed the terrible strain he had been under since the unexpected fight had started. The Democrats showered questions concerning the hunt for truant members. Cannon was arraigned and heaped with invectives and vituperation by Democrats, from the floor.

At 7 o'clock twenty deputies were sworn in and sent in search of the missing men, and twenty minutes later a quorum was announced. The insurgents and Democrats claim that they have the upper hand.

At 7:30, Olmsted, a regular, moved that the deputies be instructed to cease in the arrests of absentees. Roll Call was demanded. Again the regulars were defeated, the vote being 124 to 93. Representative Norris, author of the rules committee resolution that precipitated the strife, said:

"The end will not come for some time. Every member of the House will be exhausted. Then look for anarchy. If the Speaker persists in refusing to rule upon the demand for a vote on the Norris resolution, we will use force."

At 8:40 Speaker Cannon replaced Moore of Pennsylvania, who had succeeded Dalzell in the chair. Hostilities were still suspended, although the gathering of numbers indicated that a storm was about to break. The insurgents and Democrats, at 10 o'clock, claimed a majority of seven. The regulars made a counter claim. At 10:30 o'clock the insurgents gathered in Gardner's room for a conference. Victor Murdock of Kansas, led the session by calling the present status of the House a "legislative Marathon."

Sherman's Sally of Wit
During the morning, Vice President Sherman dropped into the House and stopped at the Speaker's desk, where Representative Moore was presiding.

"Is there a quorum present?" he asked. After he had been told "Not quite," some one said: "How much are you shy, Mr. Moore?"

Sherman grinned and took the answer from Moore's lips, remarking: "Four blue chips and one red."

The sally of wit was greeted with a roar of laughter.

Shortly before Speaker Cannon returned to the chambers the members began singing, first hymns then popular songs. Some one started "Old Black Joe" and every one joined. Then they drifted into "A Hot Time in the Old Town."

Shackelford, Democrat, of Missouri, took the floor and declared that the "speaker had contemptuously abdicated the chair and as a result the House was in a state of anarchy."

He demanded that Representative Moore, then presiding, do his duty and "stop this everlasting fiasco." His speech was cut short by Representative Payne who leaped to his feet and yelled that he had never heard a more senseless speech. Shackelford replied vehemently:

"I rise to a point of order."

"The gentleman from Missouri wouldn't know a point of order from a hole in the ground," Payne retorted.

Payne then demanded Shackelford's arrest because he had been absent from the chamber. Shackelford said he was willing if the speaker insisted.

CLEVELAND, March 18.—While speeding toward New York, President Taft eagerly devoured the details of the ant-Cannon fight in Washington. While seated at the St. Patrick's banquet in Chicago last night, he received a long cipher telegram, telling of the fight over the rules.

The President is scheduled to deliver five speeches before returning to Washington. It is thought he will seize the opportunity to refer to the present crisis. Many believe he will take a conciliatory attitude, in view of the fact that he is now called upon to face defeat in many of his pet measures because of dissension in the Republican ranks.

SPRING FOOTHILL FIRE ON STRIP OF MODJESKA RANCH

Fire burned off a strip up the side of a ridge at the Modjeska ranch in the Santiago canyon a few days ago, and had it not been for firefighters the fire would have extended over a large area. This fire, coming as it did in March, shows that danger of foothill fires, though greatest in the summer and autumn, exists most of the year round in the hills here.

John Stevens, manager of the Modjeska ranch, started in to burn some tules along the edge of the reservoir on the mountain ranch, formerly owned by the great actress, Madame Modjeska. The tules were close against a mountain-side, and the flames quickly went into the brush.

Forest Ranger Burt Stephenson of San Juan Capistrano saw the smoke from an adjoining ridge, and reached the fire shortly after it happened. Under his direction the fire was put out after four hours of hard fighting. Those who were in the fight were the forest ranger, J. V. Schulz, Ray Whitney, Bert Stambaugh, Floyd Elliott, J. E. Pleasants and Joan Stevens.

A strip of brushy ridge 100 to 150 yards wide was burned to the top of the ridge. The fire was stopped at that point. Otherwise it would have burned all over the low hills to the Pleasants ranch.

There is more need of care with fires in the hills this spring than usual, owing to the lack of rain. Much of the brush on the hills burns easily at any time of year, except right after a rain.

However, this is the first foothill fire at this time of year for a long while.

TOKYO, March 18.—A land ownership bill, permitting foreigners to own land in Nippon, today passed the House of Representatives. Another attempt was made to make the provisions of the bill applicable only to citizens of countries according a similar privilege to Japan. This was defeated.

In view of the recent anti-Japanese land ownership legislation attempted in California, the bill created unusual interest.

STANLEY HELD TO ANSWER

Showman Tells Story of Attack on Kogler—Bond is Fixed at $2000

Orange News: Dick Stanley, by his own account, professional broncho buster and show man, was given preliminary hearing in the justice court today on the charge of being accessory to a felonious assault on the person of Walter Kogler on the evening of March 1st, when Kogler was struck over the head with a club in the hands of one "Slat" Bateman, now a much sought man, and was injured so severely that for a time his life was despaired of. The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Pfeiffer, and Stanley was held to answer in the superior court under $2000 bonds.

Stanley's version of his part of the crime differed very materially from that given by a number of witnesses introduced by the District Attorney, principally in that he handled Kogler gently, and that he did not order Bateman to attack his victim. Witnesses for the prosecution generally agreed in their testimony that Stanley rushed upon Kogler, pushed or struck him violently backward, and called upon his men for assistance. Stanley maintained that he merely laid his hands upon Kogler and that he uttered no call for help.

Stanley, after a two weeks sojourn in the county jail, following the trouble of the night of March 1st, when one of his men assaulted Kogler and made good his escape, appeared in court this morning accompanied by his attorney, A. F. Lindley of Los Angeles, his brother, and several witnesses who were members of his show company. District Attorney Davis appeared for the state, and after hearing the complaint, called Walter Kogler, the subject of the attack to the stand. Kogler recited the incidents immediately preceding the attack by Bateman. He came in time, he said, to see the showmen driving a crowd from the house, and saw a dog placed so as to guard the porch. Stanley addressed him, he said, and offered a reward if he would go upon the porch. He replied that he did not care to go on the porch, and suggested that Stanley had better go around to the front and try to rustle up a crowd. Stanley, he said, asked him why he did not go inside the tent and Kogler's reply precipitated the attack. Kogler said, "I paid fifty cents to see a ten cent show last night," whereupon Stanley rushed him, either striking or pushing him backward, and crying, "Hey Ruble!" The call, Kogler testified was followed immediately by Bateman's attack.

Kogler's testimony was in the main points supported by that of J. J. Roberts, G. S. Watkins, Geo. Gilmore and J. F. Donovan who testified for the prosecution in the forenoon. The court adjourned at noon until one o'clock, when Dr. Royer took the chair and testified as to the extent of Kogler's injuries. Donovan and Kogler were recalled, and the state rested its case.

Attorney Lindley moved that the defendant be dismissed on the ground that the state had failed to connect him with the felony but he was overruled. He then called G. A. Bernard, Stanley himself, and several other witnesses. Stanley's story was of chief interest, as in several cases it was in direct denial of the statements of preceding witnesses. He claimed that his property was being destroyed and that he was attempting to drive the crowd from his property, and that he touched Kogler but lightly and did not touch upon his men. He stated that the call came from "Slat" the man who used the club. While other witnesses stated that Stanley ordered Bateman to "beat it," "get out of town," etc., Stanley declared that he only said, "What did you do that for? Get back where you belong."

GALEN CLARK 96 YEARS OLD

Discoverer of Famous Mariposa Grove of Big Trees is Picturesque Figure

The telegraphic dispatches of the past week stated that Redondo Beach has been entertaining a distinguished visitor, Galen Clark, discoverer of the famous Mariposa Grove of big trees. This week Mr. Clark will be 96 years old, but is still active and in the best of health. He presents a picturesque figure in California history.

As guardian of the Yosemite for nearly a quarter of a century, he extended courtesies to prominent people of the world. His knowledge of the Yosemite, the Indians of the valley and of the big trees, combine to make him an unusually entertaining conversationalist.

Having come to California from New York by way of the Isthmus of Panama in 1853, in search of gold, he went to Mariposa county in 1854 and has spent most of the time since then in that region.

He discovered the Mariposa grove of big trees while on a hunting trip in 1857. Although he voluntarily retired as guardian of the Yosemite some years ago he continues to spend his summers in the valley he loves so well and his winters with his daughter in Oakland.

Mr. Clark has dug his own grave near the Yosemite Falls and quarried his own tombstone from a massive block of granite. His grave is surrounded by a fence and in each corner of the lot is a young Sequoia.

Since he was 90 years of age, Mr. Clark has written three books, "The Indians of the Yosemite," "The Big Trees of California," and one now in press, "The Yosemite Valley. Its Heights, Characteristic Features and Theories Regarding Its Origin." This last is probably the most interesting and of the greatest value. It contains not only a summary of the theories of scientists and geologists regarding the formation of the Yosemite but gives a theory of his own heretofore unpublished.

Mr. Clark has been here on business pertaining to the publishing of the book and the printing of additional editions of the other two. While here he visited with his friend, C. H. Burnett, to whom "The Indians of the Yosemite" is dedicated.

After a short visit in Los Angeles Mr. Clark will leave for the north, stopping at Summerland, Santa Barbara and Santa Cruz. When the snows permit he will again enter the Yosemite for the summer.

C. Stanfield Accused of Running Away With His Brother's Wife

FULLERTON, March 17.—Robert Stanfield, who went north a few days ago to get a position in the oil fields, leaving money with his wife to support herself and three small children, during his absence, upon his return home today found that his wife was missing. There was an other great surprise in store for him when he learned that his brother, C. Stanfield, had also left Fullerton at about the same hour his wife disappeared. C. Stanfield leaves behind a wife and two small children.

The missing man and woman were traced to Santa Ana, and it is believed they are headed for some new oil field, having made inquiry at Olinda in regard to the oil fields far down in Mexico. Mrs. C. Stanfield left with her children today for her former home in Arkansas, having lost all hope of her husband returning here.

There is much talk here over the matter, as it is about the worst case of double desertion that has ever taken place in the county. Mrs. Bob Stanfield carried away money her husband left for her support when he went north to find work, and also bedding, glassware and silverware.

The officers are doing everything possible to run down the missing people. A complaint was filed against Mrs. Bob Stanfield today, charging her with deserting her children, and it is said a complaint will be filed against C. Stanfield.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "sour risings" in throat after eating, and if you have symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot breads and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to it as long as you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

W. R. C. Holds Initiation

A regular meeting of Sedgwick Woman's Relief Corps was held yesterday afternoon in the G. A. R. hall with a large attendance of members. Four new candidates were initiated and entered their names on the roll book, making a membership of 224 members in good standing. Just before intermission the usual penny march took place.

The Relief committee reported a large number of sick calls made. Those who were ill are almost all improving.

The chairman of the last tea committee, Harriet Coulter, reported a pleasant time and reimbursed the treasurer with a goodly sum.

The secretary read General Orders number eight, which proved interesting, especially to those anticipating attending the Department Convention in Oakland, April 19-22. A special G. A. R. train will be run by the department, under the direction of the Assistant Adjutant General, leaving the Arcade station in Los Angeles, Sunday, April 17, 1910, at 3 p. m., arriving at Oakland the following morning. The round trip rate on this G. A. R. special will be $14.00; a standard Pullman berth will cost $2.50 and a tourist berth will cost $1.25, and a dining car will be attached to the train. Comrades or others desiring to secure sleeping car accommodations may do so by conferring with the Assistant Adjutant General, H. J. Osborne, at 841 1/2 South Spring St., Los Angeles, Cal. Hotel accommodations and rates may be secured on writing to Comrade W. R. Bair, chairman, G. A. R. Encampment Executive Committee, Room 118 Hotel St. Marks, Oakland, Cal.

Hostess to Guild

Mrs. William Malone was hostess Wednesday evening to the young ladies of St. Elizabeth's Guild of the Church of the Messiah. Following the business meeting refreshments were served and the evening spent socially.

At Mrs. Ulm's

Mrs. M. B. Ulm very delightfully entertained the Clover Thimble Club on Wednesday afternoon, three guests, besides the members of the club, being present, Mesdames Lockwood, Andrew Morris and Mrs. Ulm's daughter, Mrs. Heaslit of Los Angeles. The ladies chatted over their pretty needlework and the moments sped swiftly. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Ulm invited her guests into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served to the company. As elsewhere, the floral decorations were of violets and frezias, and the table was prettily appointed. The place cards were tied with green ribbon, suggestive of St. Patrick's Day.

Luncheon at the Alexandria

An elaborate luncheon was given yesterday at the Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, by Miss Stewart of that city, whose charming personality has made her many friends in Santa Ana during her visits to Mrs. H. C. Dawes, for whom yesterday's luncheon was given, prior to her departure for Europe on May 11.

The appointments of the luncheon, which was served at 12:30, were exquisite, the center piece of massed jonquils and ferns being the dominant feature of the color scheme of yellow and green, significant of the date, St. Patrick's Day. Covers were laid for the hostess, for the guest of

In Honor of Mother

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. M. Backus of Berkeley, was the guest of honor at a needlework party at which her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Heil, was hostess. The ladies invited to meet Mrs. Backus were all old friends whom she had known in a short residence in Orange some years ago.

Twenty-four ladies were present, and covers were laid for these at a collation daintily served at a table decorated in the green and white of St. Patrick's colors. This color scheme prevailed also in the house decorations.

Erwin Barnes, son of Dr. H. E. W. Barnes, left this morning for Los Angeles, where he will enter the employ of the F. W. Stitt Company, merchandise brokers. Jolly St. Patrick's Ball

Dancing to the splendid music furnished by Langley's band of six pieces, more than two hundred people "tripped the light fantastic toe" last night at the St. Patrick's ball held at Spurgeon's Hall under the auspices of the Aviation Club. Gayety ruled the hour and the dancers showed their gratitude to St. Patrick for having a day, by repeated encores and the prolonging of the festivity to the latest possible hour.

NOT A "CURE-ALL"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment

—There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies. There are different and separate medicines, each one devised for a certain human ailment or a class of ailments closely allied. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulency and dyspepsia. They are rich in Bismuth-Subnitrate, Pepsin and Carminatives. They are prepared by special processes which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per package. Everyone suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy. Remember, Dean's Drug Store is the only store in Santa Ana where these remedies may be obtained, and every one in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ASSIST IN SECURING DISPOSAL OF SEWAGE OF SUGAR FACTORY

built a ditch to my pasture to carry this water away, but access to this ditch here at the factory was blocked. I told the directors that if they did not pump out those wells, the sand running into the plant would block it. Mr. Nickey and Mr. Blee were appointed a committee to sound the wells. They reported all but one clean to the bottom. I can't credit it. I got an expert well man and he sounded with both string and wire, and he said they were not clean. The factory, however, was opened, and the water pumped straight into the factory. Catey told me the factory would be stopped within two weeks, and it was."

Stutsman—"Did you bring this before the board?"

McFadden—"I was only one, and some of them took offense at my plain talk."

R. T. Harris—"The manager was instructed to clean the wells."

McFadden—"The manager was instructed to buy a Byron Jackson pump, which was done. The general manager was also directed to lay a pipeline, and that was not done until I was directed to lay it."

Turner—"There is no use rehearsing all these things. I don't doubt but what mistakes were made. Let's go forward. These men guarantee to put the plant in shape." McFadden—"Their proposal is based on the release of the stock, which is tied up in court, and that release cannot be given."

Irvine—"I begged the Case, Hinze Co. to give this bond and they wouldn't give it."

Monaghan—"The stockholders want to know the truth of the past, so we may be prepared for the future."

S. Hill—"I would ask Mr. McFadden as to his idea as to the practicability of his plans for disposing of the waste water."

McFadden—"I don't feel like talking on that matter, for it might be my opinion alone. I have lived here forty years and I never came across anything equal to this, and I was never called such hard names nor lied about on the streets as in this matter. But I wish to say that the vital question in this valley is a clean factory. I say it is absolute nonsense to deliver this factory to men holding the views in regard to cleanliness held by the management. For fear I might be misquoted I have written my statement."

This statement was to the effect that a foul factory is a menace to the valley. It reviewed much of the history of the controversy, and charged malicious attacks on McFadden. An authorized statement will be published in the Register tomorrow.

Nickey—"It is the recommendation of the committee that this sewage go to the ocean, one of the methods named by Mr. McFadden."

Harris—"Isn't this the first time you ever presented to the directors the idea of carrying it to the ocean?"

Nickey—"It was talked."

Harris—"The opposition has admitted this solution."

General Case—"We can't get to the ocean without a right-of-way from the P. E., and that has been blocked by one of the directors."

Nickey—"Can we all concur on going to the ocean?"

Thomas—"If it costs $100,000 to go there, we ought to go. A statement I have seen shows twenty-eight per cent profit for the last campaign. We have spent lots of money for things that are now in for good. If we can get the objections of the P. E. removed, we ought to go to the ocean. Personal feelings stand in the way."

Gen. Case held up a thick crust taken from inside a pipe.

"This," said he, "shows what the water did. The shallow wells give water full of mineral. We have a new well now that gives 150 inches almost free from mineral."

Limewater Harris—"I think much of this deposit came because water run through once was again pumped into the pipes to save reheating, thus sending limewater into the pipes."

Case—"I never heard of it." Catey—"Does your boiler show this? If it came from the wells they would show it."

Case—"I am not a practical man, I can't say."

R. J. Blee asked to hear of the offer made by James Irvine for disposing of the water.

Irvine read from letters taken from his file. On Aug. 25 he offered to care for the waste if pumped to a point on his land, provided he could contract for 1000 acres of beets and have the preference in delivery, that his land might be cleared to receive the waste water. The offer was rejected, and was later withdrawn.

Irvine—"The reason given me was that 1000 acres was too much to contract with me."

Blee and Nickey said that the reason was that the factory could not give the preference to any grower.

S. Hill made a motion that it be the sense of the meeting that a pipeline be laid to the ocean. This was withdrawn, and a motion by Stutsman was carried that the stockholders back the committee in requesting the P. E. for a right-of-way, if the committee thought best to go to the ocean.

Irvine—"We can't drop the past, but since some of you have expressed a desire not to discuss it, I will say nothing."

Several called for his statement.

Irvine's Position

Irvine—"My position is this. I have no confidence in the Case management, and as long as they are in control there is no use in coming to me. If the Cases withdraw, I'll try to take the water, though I don't want it, at a great deal less than it will cost to go to the ocean."

"I have tried in every way to get progress, to get this factory into shape, but on every proposition we have been blocked by a vote of five to four. On several instances, Mr. Case himself voted. I tried to get a disinterested party to examine the factory. I don't believe it is up to capacity. Mr. Monroe, an expert, says it is not up to capacity."

"We tried to get the Case, Hinze Co. to put up a bond. Mr. Nickey said it was fair. They agreed to. Two days later they refused. We were obstructed in many ways in getting information. This printed statement of the Case, Hinze Co. says they came here to make their homes; it appears to me that they are only promoters. I have here a letter of inquiry, saying that the Case, Hinze Co. was figuring on building a factory at Fallon."

Irvine read the letter.

Case—"It is wrong, so far as I am concerned."

Irvine—"Hinze has been up there. We have been paying him a salary of $500 a month—when we could get a good man for $300—and he has been attending to his affairs in this manner. I don't think it fair to ask me, with these conditions in the factory existing, to step into the breach. There are a lot of things I don't think businesslike."

Was Not Filed

A. J. Crookshank—"The printed statement of the Case, Hinze Co. is incomplete. As a minority member of the board, I do not want that statement to go out unchanged."

Case—"In what way?"

Crookshank—"One thing, it contains a report stating it to have been filed, of a committee of inspection. That report was never filed. I was on the committee and would not sign it."

Harris stated the machinery was checked up with the assistance of Mr. Hinze. The report was never filed and never accepted.

Harris—"I was a member of the committee that solicited subscriptions to get this factory. Gen. Case told us the Warton plant had not been used over thirty days. I have here government reports showing that the factory had been used in two campaigns, 1901 and 1902. The machinery was not what was represented to us."

Only Three Once

Fred Hinze stated that the Cases had nothing to do with the Fallon factory. W. H. Hinze had been there but once. Fred Hinze has not been on the payroll for some time.

Irvine—"The building of this factory looks to me like a promotion affair. Then, too, there were a lot of family relatives employed. Blood is thicker than water. There may be nothing wrong. If you want a factory run that way, all right—but it is not business. There were some eight or twelve Cases and Hinzes and relations."

Case—"I think that is exaggerated."

Harris pulled a statement from his pocket, and read the names of thirteen brothers-in-law, sons-in-law and principals, drawing salaries totaling $1895 a month.

D. F. Campbell—"I don't care how many in the family are employed if they do good work. If there is anything wrong, say so. If not, it is a small piece of business to bring it up."

Thomas and Turner said they believed the P. E. would give a right-of-way.

Thomas—"The financial report looks good. Any business proposition that can make a showing like that hasn't much to kick on. The thing now is to get the water out."

There was some discussion as to the financial statement, one side contending that some items were not in, showing costs, and the other some not showing receipts.

It was 5:30 o'clock. On motion of Stutsman, the meeting adjourned.

SANTA ANA INVESTORS DELIGHTED

T. J. C. Webster Reports Favorably on the Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Company's Property

T. J. C. Webster, the well known mining engineer, and for many years a resident of Santa Ana, has just returned from a trip to Rawhide, Nevada, where he was sent in the interests of stockholders of the Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Company. The Santa Ana stockholders have for some time been desirous of securing the control of this company, and to that end engaged the services of Mr. Webster to visit Rawhide and make a careful examination of the company's holdings.

Mr. Webster returns with a very favorable report, of which the following is a copy:

Highland Park, Cal., March 15, 1910. To the Shareholders of "Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Co." Santa Ana, Cal.

Gentlemen:—Herewith I submit my report of the result of examination of the Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Co.'s property at Rawhide, Esmeralda county, Nevada.

This camp is situated about 30 miles from Schurz, Nevada, a station on the Southern Pacific Co.'s line running from Reno to Goldfield. A daily auto line or tri-weekly stage connects Schurz and Rawhide.

Like all camps in southwestern Nevada, this also is suffering from the reaction, and to a greater degree because, one of the youngest.

The "Coalition," which owns the greater part of the camp, is doing nothing, and their mill, said to have cost $180,000, is a failure. The only reduction plant in the camp is the 10-stamp mill of Messrs. Wheeler and Cook. This is furnished with concentrators, a tube or pebble mill, but no cyanide plant. The saving is said to be 65 per cent of the values. This mill is utterly unable to treat a tithe of the lower grade ores. Consequently the lessors can only ship the high grade, leaving all ores below $25 and $30 on the dump, and of these there is said to be an immense tonnage in the camp.

Through the kindness of the owners I was allowed to inspect the workings of the Mint Co. This is now in high grade. A sample taken from the 340 foot level, across 4 feet, gave $359.39 gold. I was especially interested in these workings, because they are within 1000 feet of the Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Co. It has one of the deepest shafts in the district and shows the value in place. Here walls appear and the mineral zone is defined. This company is now shipping high grade, as is also the Prosky adjoining on the south.

I was also in the Victor, which has mined a large tonnage of ore, with good values still in sight. I was interested in this because this company had recently purchased 75 feet of the Prosky Co., adjoining them on the east, within the mineral zone of the Mint and the Prosky companies.

The Rawhide Amalgamated Mining & Milling Co.'s lease, which I understand has been extended five years, covers one-half claim, 600x750 feet. At present it can only be classed as a prospect. It is situated in the northeast part of the camp.

The company owns a shop with appliances for tool dressing, a six-horse power Fairbanks & Morse gasoline hoist, galleys frame, cable, bucket, and is equipped to sink 400 feet.

In all, 750 feet of work has been done. Two shafts, Nos. 1 and 3, timbered with square sets, have been sunk 80 feet. No. 2 is 34 feet deep, all vertical. The remainder consists of levels and cross-cuts at the depth of 80 feet. The shafts are 4x7 feet in the clear, with man-way and ladders. The ground is dry and holds well, and close lagging is not required.

The formation of the district is like all those of southwest Nevada—eruptive. I have not had the time nor facilities to absolutely determine the exact names of the rocks, nor is it necessary. The hanging wall is should call an altered andesite, the foot wall a basalt, an older rock. This latter crops out at intervals from the Mint through the Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling Co.'s grounds, and is the foot wall of the Mint. The dip is toward the west and the strike northerly and southerly. The values lie along this line. On the surface there are no ledges such as ordinarily appear. The mineral zone, as I prefer to call it, is that part of the formation in which the fissures have been filled by infiltration and replacement. The fact that a contact appears along the line of value and extends through the Rawhide Amalgamated Company's ground, impressed me more favorably than anything else in connection with the property.

Few samples were taken, because it was conceded that the present workings show little value. Mr. Terwilliger's assays were correct. Two taken from the surface of a large outcrop on the property gave $8.24 and $4.02 in gold. One from the west side of the south drift gave $20.67 gold. A cut across 2 feet in Shaft No. 2 gave $16.56 gold. Evidently the work on the 80 foot level was exploratory. The deeper work along the zone will be of great value in prospecting this property.

I could discover in the ore nothing detrimental to treatment, except talc, but the presence of silver in some would more urgently demand an up-to-date cyanide plant for close savings.

I was favorably impressed with the Rawhide Amalgamated Gold Mining & Milling property. A wide extent of territory in the camp shows values, but I believe that this claim is located on the best mineralized zone in the camp, and gives evidence not only of reaching values in depth, but also that the zone of values, when reached, will be clearly defined.

Mr. A. T. Price, in charge of the property, has, I believe, done more work on less money than any man in Rawhide. He is both honorable and capable and I am indebted to him for many kindnesses; as also to Messrs. Schaeffer and Channing of the Mint Co., Messrs. Wheeler and Cook of the Victor, and Mr. Anderson, their foreman; also to Messrs. Prosky and Roberts, and Messrs. Vance and Terrell.

I may also add that I found Mr. Terwilliger's statements correct in every particular.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

T. J. C. WEBSTER.

THE KANSAS TIN SHOP

is watching that fight going on in Philadelphia—with good deal of interest.

We know how it feels to have the combines and associations come down on us because we have been there, have been living right there for the past six or seven years, and now, because we will not join in with the plumbers combine, known as the "Master Plumbers Association," there are but three wholesale houses (handling plumbers goods) that dare sell us the goods we need in our business. The rest of them are afraid our "friends the enemy" will boycott them if they sell us plumbing material. Bah! Those associations have driven a good many men out of business and have promised to do us up—someday—but we are still here and "doin' biznis" at the old stand.

We don't have any quarrel with union or non-union men. We don't have time, that's what, the matter.

We notice that the preachers and some other parties in Philadelphia demand that the street railways in that town "arbitrate," which means that the independent workmen shall quit his job or join the union.

The railway company says "nothin' doin'" and the Kansas Tin Shop says they are right.

Eye strain causes more headache than all other causes combined. Many people, especially those studying hard in school, are suffering from headache or a "heavy feeling" in the brow, and do not realize that the cause is a defect or weakness in the eyes. $100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TO STOVE BUYERS

There must be reasons why Garlands have been for years the most popular and extensively sold stoves on the market. Ask your neighbors or go into every corner of Orange county and ask the other fellow's neighbors, hear their story and then you will know, and it will be easier for you to decide what to buy yourself. Money is hard to get and when we spend it we should spend it well. Stove money is best spent when put into a Garland, and no cook stove fits the conditions of this vicinity like our Pacific Garland six hole cast range. Sold on trial. See us also for Garland Gas stoves, small cooks, or medium price stoves.

WASTE NOT, WANT NOT

is an old adage observed by every careful housewife and there is not much of the bread made of our flour that reaches the garbage barrel. This is a genuine Kansas, all hard wheat flour, such as is used by the best bakeries everywhere. It is stronger because it is ALL hard wheat, goes farther, makes the best bread. $1.65 per 50 lb sack.
